

Eukanuba Discover Dogs 2016
Interview and Photo Opportunities

There are lots of interesting people to interview/take pictures of around the show who have amazing stories to tell.

Examples of these include:

- This year's Crufts Best in Show winner Marie Burns and her Westie, Devon will be available for photos with press and selfies with members of the public, and will be accompanied by the prestigious Best in Show trophy. They will be on the Kennel Club stand between 11-12pm and 3-4pm on both Saturday 22nd and Sunday 23rd October
- Finalists from the nation's favourite crossbreed competition Scruffts, who have qualified for Crufts 2016
- Taking over the event this year are the famous dogs of Instagram, who will be the official 'Doggy Roving Reporters' at the event, so make sure to look out for them in action
- Reality TV star Pete Wicks and his rescue French Bulldog, Eric will be on the Breed Rescue stand at 11.15am on Saturday 22nd October
- Agility's top athletes who have qualified for the final at Crufts with their talented dogs
- A number of rescue dogs who have had a difficult start to life but found their forever home through the hard work of Kennel Club Breed Rescue organisations will be on the Breed Rescue stand over the course of the weekend
- Owners from around 200 different breed booths including vulnerable, unique and rare breeds
- Companion Dog Club winners - Best Pedigree and Best Novelty
- New breeds attending the show this year include the Jack Russell and Braque D'Auvergne. The Braque D'Auvergne is an ancient French gundog breed that has been recognised by the Kennel Club on its Imported Breed Register since April 2016
- Young Kennel Club members who excel at competing with their dog in a variety of activities
- Expert Richard Curtis will be doing an exciting heelwork to music display in the training and display ring on Saturday 22nd October
- Kennel Club spokespeople to talk about the show itself and what makes it so unique and new figures of trending dog breeds in the UK

If you'd like us to arrange any interviews, come to the Press Office located in S7 and S8 or call 020 7518 1008.
