

Discover Dogs 2019 Interview and Photo Opportunities

There are lots of interesting people to interview/take pictures of around the show who have amazing stories to tell.

Examples of these include:

- Returning this year is 'Cuddle Corner', people can chill out on beanbags and cuddle their favourite breeds – this will be held over both days
- Kennel Club spokespeople to talk about the show itself and what makes it so unique, and new figures of trending dog breeds in the UK
- Owners from around 200 different breed booths including vulnerable, unique and rare breeds
- Agility's top athletes who have qualified for the final at Crufts with their talented dogs
- A number of rescue dogs who have had a difficult start to life but found their forever home through the hard work of Kennel Club Breed Rescue organisations will be on the Kennel Club stand over the course of the weekend
- Action shots of competitions and displays, such as Heelwork to Music (doggy dancing), the 'Tunnel of Temptation' and the Medical Detection Dog displays and much more
- Cute and amusing dog shots, with dogs of all shapes and sizes and the largest breeds of dog posing with the smallest
- Dogs who look like their owners – photographers often find these comedic photo opportunities at the show
- Young Kennel Club members who excel at competing with their dog in a variety of activities
- 'Have a go handling' in the Young Kennel Club ring on both days – a chance for children and young people to try their hand at handling a dog in the ring
- Dogs and owners sampling weird and wonderful doggy wares on the trade stands
